Notes
A short note in the Green County, Ohio, History says this:

Talking about the 1803 term of the first serpreme court of Green County it says " At this term, in the case of William Orr vs. Peter Borders, leave was given to amend the declaration, on payment of costs - an indication that some attention began to be paid to special pleading. The first civil case that was tried by a jury, was that of Wallingford vs Vandolah. A verdict was rendered for the plaintiff of 24 cents, upon which "he paid the jury and constable fees."

In 1803 this may have been Joseph Vandolah they were talking about. Too early for James, who came to Indiana. Also possibly could be Joseph's father, Peter. They both were in Green County. Joseph may have died before his father. The IGI record says Joseph died in 1814 and Peter died in 1817 both in Green County.

Notes

James VanDolah came to Indiana about 1835 and decided to build his mill here on Cedar Creek. They came from Green County, Ohio, and from Sugar Creek Township. He and Rebecca were probably married there as on the census we find that Benjamin was born in Ohio, as was the next son Thomas and the rest were born in Indiana.

He built the VanDolah Mill and worked on several others in the area. In 1839 he built a mill in Cedar Creek Township and was called a "famous mill builder".

We find both the VanDolahs and the Tuckers at one time were in Sugar Creek Township, Greene County, Ohio. Would guess they came to Indiana from there. Since both families were millers and Millwrights they probably were close together.

From article in the newspaper: "When Allen County was opened up for settlement, James Vandolah came from Greene County, Ohio. The year was 1832. He found what he wanted in northeast Perry Township and purchased 520 acres direct from the government. The land lay on both sides of Cedar Creek and 100 acres of it straddled the creek bottom, connecting the high land on both sides. The price was $1.25 per acre. The officials with whom James dealt were amazed. Why, Mr. Vandolah, with such a good choice of available land, do you take so much wild creek bottom? He answered I am a millwright and I want the water rights! James went back to Greene County. Three years later he returned and dug the mill race. The following year, 1836 he brought his family to stay.....James chose well, building a house for the family on the south rim, and the mill down close to the creek. The creek curved south on his land and he had cut the mill race across the inside of the curve, and located the mill against the bluff of hill on the west side of the creek and south of what would later become the Auburn Road. James Vandolah was a genius at his trade and the mill was expertly engineered. The mill burr from French stone, was adjustable for fine and course grinding, and everything in the mill worked beautifully."

From the "annals of the townships of Allen County"

From the "annals of the townships of Allen County"

James Vandolah, one of the worthy pioneers of Allen County, came to Indiana in 1832, on a tour of inspection, looking for a situation for a water-mill. This he found in Perry Township and then returned to Ohio. In 1835 he came again and remained long enough to dig the race for his mill. In the fall of 1836, he emigrated with his family, and settled on the farm where Benjamin Vandolah now lives. He entered about 400 acres of wild land in Eel River township, 520 in Perry township, and 160 acres in DeKalb County. He was a mill-wright, and devoted much time to his trade, having worked in several mills throughout the country. He buildt the Shryock mill at Leo, the Dawson mill at Spencerville,. the grist mill near Clarksville, his own mill and a number of others. About 1830 he was united in marriage with Rebecca Tucker. Of their eight children, five are still living, Benjamin, Thomas, Sarah J., Frances, and James.. Mr. Vandolah served as one of the trustees of his township several terms. He was a leading citizen and was highly respected by all who knew him.

Allen County, Indiana, land contracts under the name of James Vandolah:

(check this one out, as James died in 1851, could be son James, Jr., or just the estate as apparently the estate hung on for a long time without being settled. Reagen Tucker may be Reason Tucker, father of Rebecca. We find the estate on the map of about 1885)
James Vandolah Joshua Hand March 3, 1838 Bk C, page 327
James Vandolah Joe Warner October 14, 1854 Bk W, page 492

Thomas J. Vandolah James Vandolah April 30, 1872 Bk 56, page 44
(Another date beyond his death) This time Thomas selling to either the estate of James, Sr. or to James, Jr.)

1850 Census of Perry Township, Allen County, Indiana:

James Vandolah.....46 M.....farmer.....born Ohio, 1804
Rebecca.....38 F.....born VA,, 1812
Benjamin.....17 M.....Laborer.....born, Ohio, 1833

James has his name on 2 tombstones in the Cemetery at Perry Township. One is older and is probably the original. Then there is a larger one that says "In Memory of Our Parents" that has both his and Rebecca's name on. She died in 1881, 30 years after the death of James.

Notes

James VanDolah came to Indiana about 1835 and decided to build his mill here on Cedar Creek. They came from Green County, Ohio, and from Sugar Creek Township. He and Rebecca were probably married there as on the census we find that Benjamin was born in Ohio, as was the next son Thomas and the rest were born in Indiana.

He built the VanDolah Mill and worked on several others in the area. In 1839 he built a mill in Cedar Creek Township and was called a "famous mill builder".

We find both the VanDolahs and the Tuckers at one time were in Sugar Creek Township, Greene County, Ohio. Would guess they came to Indiana from there. Since both families were millers and Millwrights they probably were close together.

From article in the newspaper: "When Allen County was opened up for settlement, James Vandolah came from Greene County, Ohio. The year was 1832. He found what he wanted in northeast Perry Township and purchased 520 acres direct from the government. The land lay on both sides of Cedar Creek and 100 acres of it straddled the creek bottom, connecting the high land on both sides. The price was $1.25 per acre. The officials with whom James dealt were amazed. Why, Mr. Vandolah, with such a good choice of available land, do you take so much wild creek bottom? He answered I am a millwright and I want the water rights! James went back to Greene County. Three years later he returned and dug the mill race. The following year, 1836 he brought his family to stay.....James chose well, building a house for the family on the south rim, and the mill down close to the creek. The creek curved south on his land and he had cut the mill race across the inside of the curve, and located the mill against the bluff of hill on the west side of the creek and south of what would later become the Auburn Road. James Vandolah was a genius at his trade and the mill was expertly engineered. The mill burr from French stone, was adjustable for fine and course grinding, and everything in the mill worked beautifully."

From the "annals of the townships of Allen County"

James Vandolah, one of the worthy pioneers of Allen County, came to Indiana in 1832, on a tour of inspection, looking for a situation for a water-mill. This he found in Perry Township and then returned to Ohio. In 1835 he came again and remained long enough to dig the race for his mill. In the fall of 1836, he emigrated with his family, and settled on the farm where Benjamin Vandolah now lives. He entered about 400 acres of wild land in Eel River township, 520 in Perry township, and 160 acres in DeKalb County. He was a mill-wright, and devoted much time to his trade, having worked in several mills throughout the country. He buildt the Shryock mill at Leo, the Dawson mill at Spencerville, the grist mill near Clarksville, his own mill and a number of others. About 1830 he was united in marriage with Rebecca Tucker. Of their eight children, five are still living, Benjamin, Thomas, Sarah J., Frances, and James. Mr. Vandolah served as one of the trustees of his township several terms. He was a leading citizen and was highly respected by all who knew him.

Frances grandmother on the Tucker side was named Frances too and probably where she got her name. Not much is known about Frances other than her connection with Matthias Fitch and her children. I have heard no stories about her. Her father was James Vandolah and they came early from Greene County, Ohio. The family seems to have been in the milling business, either building mills or running mills. Though some of her older siblings were born in Greene County, Ohio, Frances was born after they arrived here in Indiana.

Note that she and Matthias were born the same year 1843 and died the same year 1923 and were both 80 years old at the time of their death.

Mr. Vandolah has in his possession a very curious Indian relic which he unearthed 12 years ago.*

Benjamin Vandolah, the eldest son of James Vandolah and Rebecca Tucker was born in Greene County, Ohio, on April 14, 1834. He was brought to Indiana when he was 3 years old and on the farm where he now lives, was raised to manhood. He was married to Catherine Aaron, daughter of Michael and Elizabeth (Pierce) Aaron. She is a member of the Lutheran Church. He is a prosperous farmer, possessing 180 acres of fine land in Perry township, with substantial buildings. Mr. Vandolah has in his possession a very curious Indian relic which he unearthed 12 years ago.

SHE STILL HAS THAT PIONEER ADAPTABILITY from the News Sentinal, July 12, 1989

Living to the ripe age of 100 is always an accomplishment, and even more so when the honoree is the scion of pioneer stock. Liz Vandolah Stellhorn was feted on her 100th birthday, July 1, at Byron Health Center, where she has been a resident for more than a decade. "Everybody said she would die when they took her away from the farm" Stellhorn's niece Doris Schlatter recalled. But Stellhorn who lived on the Vandolah family farm on Vandolah Road all her life, lived up to her pioneer heritage of adaptability. They put her in a wheelchair and she would go up and down the halls and talks to everybody.

The centurian is the granddaughter of James Vandolah, who first visited Perry Township in 1832 and bought land for a mill. He eventually acquired almost 1000 acres in Perry and Eel River townships and a quarter section in DeKalb County. Vandolah raised 8 children. His son Benjamin remained on the homestead on Vandolah Road at Old Auburn Road, married, and raised two daughters, Liz and Fan. They ran around together with the Bleekman girls. They used to attend everything at Robinson Park.

Fan or Frances Vandolah married Harrison Bailey and raised six children, including Doris Schlatter the descendant of a pioneer Maumee River landholder. Their only son, Byron Stellhorn, said he and Schlatter still farm about 100 acres of the old Vandolah property. A neighbor, Karen Elliott, treasures the old Vandolah mill wheel.

Treasurer of the Dutch Ridge Cemetery Association, Byron Stellhorn, 75, remembers attending the one-room Dutch Ridge School, now a private home. His mother was a traditional housewife. She always churned butter. We had dairy cattle for a while, and ended up with beef cattle. Schlatter and her aunt tended chickens until she left for the nursing home. They never had a TV or a refrigerator. She would cook things and put them down in her basement. She was a good Christian woman, always helping her neighbors. Schlatter remembered her aunt sewing for the Red Cross during World War I.

Her aunt's memory hasn't been good in recent years, but life in the nursing home has some satisfactions, Schlatter said. She loves visits, especially from our grandchildren. When she was on the farm, she never wore any jewelry, but in the nursing home she was wearing jewelry that she won at bingo.

And Short Biographical Sketches of the people who have lived here, beginning in the year 1820. The name of every family throughout this part of the country who have ever lived around here will be brought into connection with this history. To be continued during the year 1893

A short sketch of Joseph Vandolah and how he got his wife about eighty years ago.

Mr. Hand owned the farms where Newton Berryhill and John Underwood now live. He lived in a double log cabin that stood opposite the brick house where Matthew Berryhill now lives. Mr. Hand had a daughter called Polly for short, who was a young woman. One evening a young man by the name of Joseph Vandolah called at Mr. Hand's and asked if he could get to stay over night. Mr. Hand with pioneer hospitality told him he could. The young gentleman was dressed in a buckskin hunting shirt, homespun pantaloons, coonskin cap and barefooted. He carried in his hand a stocking leg in which were two hundred silver dollars. He was on his way to the land office situated at Cincinnati, to enter the quarter section of land opposite where Mr. Hand lived and now owned by Matthew Berryhil. It is not known to this day which Miss Polly fancied most, Joseph's garb which covered true manly principles, his person, or the stocking leg. Probably a combination of the whole. It soon became evident that she fancied the combination. It so happened, as such things do sometimes, that Joseph became enamored of Polly, which might be called a case of love at first sight, for before they slept that night they had exchanged vows of love and fidelity, and before separating they fixed the date when Joseph was to return and seal their vows for life. When the time came for Joseph to return and claim his fiancee, he thought, as it was to be the second most eventful day of a man's life, he must fix himself up in a more respectable garb; so he put on his Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes and punctually appeared at the home of Polly. His clothes changed his appearance so that Polly did not know him, but Joseph introduced himself as the man who carried the stocking leg, and they were married all the same. Joseph took his honeymoon at home erecting his log cabin in the woods upon the land which the two hundred dollars bought. They seemed to be well mated and lived a quiet peaceable life. He was not [illegible] bred, but was rather a [illegible] principles. He was a great bee hunter and would dig ginseng in the summer and dry it and carry it to Lebanon on his back and sell it and walk home, a distance of 28 miles the round trip. One prolific year he dug more than he thought he could carry. He went to his neighbor John Hawkins and asked him to lend him a horse. It was in November and quite cool weather. Mr. Hawkins granted his request and told him he must wear a pair of his shoes. To accommodate Mr. Hawkins he put the shoes on and wore them. When he came home he took the horse and shoes home and thanked Mr. Hawkins for the use of the horse, and said to him, "You will not fool me again by getting me to wear them shoes." He said it rained on him and the water ran down his legs into his shoes and kept his feet cold all day, when, he said, if he had been barefooted, his feet would have dried off and kept warm. They had five children, James, Joseph, William, Sarah and Benjamin. William died when about twelve years old. Mr. Vandoval was soon called to his final reward. James learned the millwright trade, which he followed through life He and Samuel Lamb built and owned the Washington Mills that burned down a few years ago He built the Evans Mill bel w Spring Valley and owned it in partnership with Mr. Evans John Duck of this place learned the millwright trade under him. He married Rebecca Tucker, who was a daughter of Reason Tucker. They were married at the bride's home at Washington Mills, Squire John James officiating which event occurred in about the year 1832. The widow Vandolah, after living some time, came to the conclusion that it might be better to have a man to help manage her affairs, so she married Wm. Whicker and bore him two children, William and Stephen. Finally she concluded that a man was not always what they were cracked up to be. They differed and separated, and in due time were divorced, which occurred about the year 1835. The Vandolah heirs sold their farm to Matthew Berryhill and moved to Clifton and lived a year or two, where Sarah was married and James and his father-in-law built a mill, after which they all moved to Indiana beyond Ft. Wayne where James and Mr. [illegible] built a mill, [illegible] At last accounts James and Joseph were both dead.

Andrew McClure, one of the [illegible] of a mile southwest of this [illegible] the year 1812, on the farm now owned by E. A. Maxwell, where he followed farming during his life, at which place he died July 12, 1837, aged 64 years, 2 months and 3 days. Mary his wife died Nov. 6, 1862, aged 83 years, 10 months and 11 das. They had ten children, Andrew Steel who married a Miss Hutchison and moved to Shelby county, where he spent his life, dying a few years ago; John who married Elvira Young and died in 1886. His wife lives with her daughter Mrs. Lemuel Ferguson of this place; Eleanor who died Aug 16, 1833, aged 20 yrs 2 months and 3 days; Mary who died April 8, 1842, aged 37 years, 11 months and 27 days; Samuel H. died March 25, 1849, aged 25 years, and 3 months; James died May 20, 1853, aged 44 years and 3 months; Cyrus married Mary Dinwiddie in 1844 and died May 17, 1848, aged 27 years, 3 months and 20 days. His wife still lives near Waynesville, O. Sarah married Wm. Young and lived in Bell Brook a few years and moved to Ind; Margaret, who so short was called Peggy, married Wm. Clency and lives at or near Sydney, O., when last heard from. Martha A. died July 12, 1890, aged 68 years.

Nicholas Seal was a son of William Seal. He came to Bell Brook with his father in about the year 1842. He worked for some time with Ephraim Bumgardner at the carriage business. He married Nancy Vaughan, and engaged in the carriage business, which he conducted for about two years and misfortune overtook him and he failed in business, after which he moved to Xenia in about the year 1853, and in 1855 died of typhoid fever and was buried in the Bell Brook cemetery. After his death his wife moved back to Bell Brook and worked at the milliner business for some time, after which she married Eli Hower and they lived for a few years in Bell Brook where Mrs. Spahr now lives, and then moved on the farm four miles north of this place where she died of a cancer Oct. 14, 1882.

Nathan B. Stipp was the son of Joseph and Amelia Stipp. Joseph was the son of George Stipp, and Amelia was the daughter of Nathan and Frances Bull. Nathan Stipp was born on the Gideon Brown farm, which was the old homestead farm of George Stipp, [illegible] by D. W. Brown and now owned by Gideon Brown, Mrs. Ruth Marshal and heirs Nathan and his two sisters were born on the above described farm. Nathan's birth [illegible] about 70 years. [illegible] with his father [illegible]

HUSBAND William HAND
NOTES:
Marriage info from record found in the Westfield (NJ) Presbyterian Church extracted records. His father may have been Daniel Hand.
Some info from "The History of Miami Co., OH" (1880), page 477. It is not known when the family left New Jersey, but it does appear they may have stopped a few years from about 1793 to 1799 in Mason Co., KY before moving on to Ohio (Mason Co. tax records which may apply, tho not proved, to this William Hand). Whether they came directly to the Cincinnati area is not yet known, but they probably were not in Greene Co. much before 1815. William left a will in Greene Co. dated 5 Jun 1819, presented 16 Dec 1819, wherein he named his wife Phebe and their children: three, Samuel, John and Serepta, were not then of age; two daughters, Sarah and Phebe, who probably were of age but not married, were given $50 each; and three daughters, Betsey, Mary and Martha, were given $2 each, indicating they were probably married and already had received their share, but no married names were given. There was no mention of a daughter named Margaret, so the parentage of the Margaret (Hand?) who married Patrick? Preston and William Pogue remains unresolved. Robinson's History of Greene Co. also listed a Joseph Hand as a son, but this relationship is not reflected in William's will and other documents, and nothing further is known of him. William's land in Greene Co., some of which which he acquired in May 1819 (Book 7, page 287), was in Sugar Creek Township, Section 6, Twp 3, Range 5, about 1-1/2 miles south of Bellbrook on the present Waynesville Road. He also once owned 74 acres of land in Hamilton Co., near Cincinnati, which he sold in June 1816 (Hamilton Co. Deed Book Q, page 107), which may reflect the time they moved up to Greene Co.

WIFE Phebe JENNINGS
NOTES:
She was shown in 1820 census in Sugar Creek Township as head of household, but was not found as such in the 1830 census; however, she did appear in court in Greene Co. on 1 Nov 1835 to attest to the transfer of her land to John Hand (Deed Book 16, page 431). She accompanied her Vandolah descendents and her granddaughter Sarah Anderson to Indiana.

CHILD 1 Mary or Polly HAND
OTHER MARRIAGES:
William WHICKER
Married: 5 Apr 1819(Div) ,Greene Co,Ohio

NOTES:
Birth date is estimated, per 1830 census. She was in her father's will, given a small bequest, which may indicate she had received a previous settlement, perhaps when married. The names of her five children from her first marriage and the two from her second marriage were found in the article in the Bellbrook Moon which described the circumstances of her marriage to Joseph Vandolah. She was known as "Polly"; probably was born in New Jersey.
Her divorce petition from her second husband was filed on 28 Dec 1829 in Greene Co. (abstracted in "Ohio Divorces: The Early Years", by Carol W. Bell (1994)) and alleged extreme cruelty, that he had beat her and threatened her life. She was granted custody of their two children, and her dower lands from her first marriage were restored to her. In Dec 1835 her children sold land they inherited from their father and included "all their right in their mother's right of dower" (Greene Co. Deed Book 17, page 36). No burial record for Polly was found, but she probably was deceased before 1850.

CHILD 2 Benjamin HAND

NOTES:

Known as a son of William and Phebe Hand; date and order of his birth is estimated. Biographic info from page 74, "A Genealogical Index of Pioneers in the Miami Valley, OH" by Lindsay M. Brien (1970); also "The History of Miami Co., OH" (1880), page 477. The first stated his will named children Cyrus, William and Nancy. The cemetery where he was buried is now lost.

CHILD 3 James HAND

NOTES:

Birth date is estimated. He probably was born in New Jersey. He was named in his father's will. A Greene Co. deed dated 5 Dec 1835 (Book 16, page 622) covering the sale by John Hand of land be bought from his mother contained the statement "John Hand....to defend against all lawful demands of all persons accepting [sic] the claim of Ann Hand, wife of James Hand", thus indicating a marriage for which no record has been found. In deed dated 3 Aug 1835 (Book 16 page 331) James Hand "of Greene Co.", together with Benjamin and Sarah Hand of Miami Co. and Samuel R. and Mary Hand of Hamilton Co., "..legal heirs of William Hand", sold to John Hand three-fourths of the undivided 51-1/2 acres in Sec 6 Twp 3 Range 5. No wife was listed for James in that deed. From these deeds, it seems clear James was estranged from his wife, and it even could be inferred that he had died between August and December 1835. It seems clear all of these references apply to the James who was a son of William and Phebe Hand.

There were several James Hands in the Cincinnati and Greene Co. areas from 1815 through 1830's. In 1820 a James Hand, born 1775-1794, described in the 1819 city directory as a house carpenter, was in Ward 1 Cincinnati with a wife and six small children, including two daughters under 10, in his household. This probably was the one who administered Patrick Preston's estate. In 1830 a James Hand, born 1760-1770, without a wife but with two females age 15-20 in his household, was in Mill Creek Twp., close by the city. It is feasible, despite the age discrepancy, this was the same individual; it also is possible he was the son of William and Phebe Hand. In 1840 the James Hand who was in in Hamilton Co. was born 1800-1810, and therefore was not the same man.

In 1850, a James Hand, age 67 (or born c1783), born in New Jersey, a carpenter, was in Perry Twp, Allen Co., IN, in the household of Benjamin Vandolah. While this man does not fit exactly either as the son of William and Phebe (they were married in 1786), or the James who was in Cincinnati in 1820/1830 (born 1775-1794 or 1760-1770), the possibilities cannot be discounted. In any case, it is reasonable to assume there was a relationship (he could have been Benjamin's uncle, for instance), and particularly since Phebe Hand died in Allen Co. This James Hand was not found in the 1860 census or in Allen Co. burial records.

CHILD 4 Betsey HAND

NOTES:

Birth date is estimated. She was named in father's will, given a small bequest, which may indicate she had received a previous settlement, perhaps when married. No married name was given in the will; no further info. She probably was born in New Jersey.

CHILD 5 Martha HAND

NOTES:

Birth date is estimated. She was named in father's will, given a small bequest, which may indicate she had received a previous settlement, perhaps when married. No married name was given in the will; no further info.

CHILD 6 Sarah HAND

NOTES:

Birth date is estimated. She was named in her father's will, and apparently was of age but not married at the time of her father's death, as she was given a $50 settlement. A Sarah Hand married William Alexon on 2 Dec 1824 in Greene Co., no further trace under that surname. It is now believed the surname probably was Erixson, based on the following: a William and Sarah Erixson are buried in the Huntertown Cemetery in Allen Co., Indiana, where Phebe Hand and many of the Vandolahs are buried, Sarah born 25 Mar 1799 and died 27 Sep 1865; in the 1840 census William and Matthew Errixson were in Swan Twp, Noble Co., Indiana; in 1850 Matthew Erickson was in Blue Creek Twp, Adams Co., Indiana, both counties which abut Allen Co.

CHILD 7 Phebe HAND

NOTES:

Birth date is estimated from 1850 and 1860 censuses, in which her birthplace was shown as New Jersey. She was named in her father's will, and apparently was of age but not married at the time of his death, as she was given a $50 settlement. The marriage record to Matthias Elixson [sic] described her as "Miss Phebe Hand", which confirms this was not a remarriage of her mother. Not located thereafter under the surname Elixson, and it is probable the name actually was Erixson or Erickson. A Matthew and William Errixson were in Swan Twp, Noble Co., Indiana in 1840, and Matthew Erickson was in Blue Creek Twp, Adams Co, Indiana, in 1850 and 1860, both counties which abut Allen Co. William and Sarah Erixson were buried in the Huntertown Cemetery in Allen Co., where Phebe Hand and many Vandolahs were buried.

CHILD 8 John HAND

NOTES:

His birth date is estimated. He may have been born in Mason Co., KY, or, if born after 1800, then probably in Ohio. He was named in his father's will, and at that time he was not of age. There are 1837 estate papers in Greene Co. which probably apply (Microfilm Roll 80, Box 22). These show William D. Johnson, said to be Sarah Johnson Hand's uncle (or brother?), acted as administrator in lieu of Sarah. A sum of $58 was noted as paid to a George W. Hand, who has not been identified, but possibly was from a Hand family in the adjacent Madison County.

CHILD 9 Samuel R. HAND

OTHER MARRIAGES:

Jane WHITESIDES
Married: 27 Jul 1841 ,Hamilton Co,Ohio

Catherine TAYLOR
Married: 31 Aug 1849 ,Greene Co,Ohio

NOTES:

He may have been born near Cincinnati. He was named in father's will, and was not then of age. In Aug 1835 he was included in the sale to his brother John of land he and his brothers inherited from their father (Greene Co. Deed Book 16, page 331). In that deed he and his wife Mary were listed "of Hamilton Co.", and they appeared there on 19 Oct 1835 to attest the deed. No marriage record to Mary has been found. He was there in the 1840 census, and where he apparently married for the second time in 1841. In 1850 he was living in Miami Township in Greene Co. and his wife then was Catherine, whom he married in 1849; in that census he gave his birthplace as Ohio, and no children were listed.

CHILD 10 Serepta HAND

NOTES:

Birth date is estimated; she may have been born in Hamilton Co., OH. She was named in father's will, and was not then of age. She may have died young, but after 1819.

NOTES:
The story of his marriage to Mary "Polly" Hand was found in page 25, Vol 1, in scrapbook of articles from the Bellbrook Moon, published about 1895, in the collection of the Greene Co. Library, Xenia, OH. No date of the marriage was given, and no record has been found, but it probably occured between 1805-08. The land his children inherited from him and sold in 1835 was in Sugar Creek Township, the SW4 of Section 36, Fractional Twp 4, Range 5, which lies about one mile south of Bellbrook.

Research by Barbara K. Fahey of Newport, OR (1997) indicates he may have been some twenty years older than Polly Hand; that he may have been identical to the Joseph Vandolah who was on tax list in Washington Twp, Fayette Co, PA in 1785 and 1786; and that he may have been a brother of Peter Valdolah who also was in Greene Co., OH at the same time as Joseph.

In Dec 1835 her children sold land they inherited from their father and included "all their right in their mother's right of dower" (Greene Co. Deed Book 17, page 36). No burial record for Polly was found, but she probably was deceased before 1850.

CHILD 1 Joseph VANDOLAH
NOTES:
In Greene Co., OH deed dated 29 Dec 1835 (Book 17, page 36), he appeared in Allen Co., IN, to attest to his participation in the joint sale of land inherited from Joseph Vandolah.
In 1850 this family was in Butler, De Kalb Co., IN; in 1860 in Perry Twp., Allen Co., IN. It should be noted that some researchers have placed the Joseph Vandolah, age 45, wife Mary, who was in the 1850 census in Clay Twp, Dearborn Co., IN, as a son of Joseph and Mary (Hand), and have placed the Joseph who married Drucilla Nickerson as a son of Peter and Sarah Vandolah (i.e., Peter and Joseph being brothers, sons of Peter and Hester). However, they also report that descendants of Henry Fair Vandolah said that Henry married a first cousin, Julia Ann Vandolah, which would apply only if Joseph and Benjamin were brothers; therefore, it is considered more probable that the son of Joseph and Mary Hand was the Joseph who married Drucilla.

CHILD 2 James VANDOLAH
NOTES:

On 29 Dec 1835 he and Rebecca and his siblings Joseph, Benjamin and Sarah Ann, sold land they inherited from their father (Greene Co. Deed Book 17, page 36). On 22 Aug 1842, James and Rebecca, then of Allen Co., IN, sold land in Greene Co. (Deed Book 23, page 58). In 1860 his widow Rebecca was in Perry Twp, Allen Co., IN.

NOTES:
On 29 Dec 1835 she, along with her brothers James, Joseph and Benjamin sold property in Greene Co. inherited from their father (Greene Co. Deed Book 17, page 36). Barbara K. Fahey, a descendent of her brother Benjamin, gave his birth year as 1812, which conflicts with hers which is calculated from data shown on her gravestone.

CHILD 5 Benjamin Henry VANDOLAH
NOTES:
Birth and death dates and other information on this family from Barbara K. Fahey, a descendant, 330 N. W. 16, Newport, Oregon 97365 (1997). Note that the 1812 birth year, assumed as shown on his gravestone, conflicts with 1811 birth year shown on his sister Sarah's gravestone. In Dec 1835, he and his siblings James, Joseph and Sarah Ann, sold interests in land inherited from their father (Greene Co. Deed Book 17, page 36). In 1850 he was in Perry Township, Allen Co., Indiana, and in his household was James Hand, who may have been his uncle.

HUSBAND PRESTON
NOTES:

The name of the first husband of Margaret Preston has not been proven. It has been speculated he might have been Patrick Preston who died in Cincinnati in Nov 1816, based on the facts that a James Hand was named the administrator of his estate, that an article in the "Bellbrook Moon" said the mother of James W. Pogue (who was known to be a son of Margaret Preston Pogue) was a Miss Hand, and that her first son with William Pogue was named Preston Patrick Pogue. However, an accounting in Jul 1818 of Patrick Preston's estate (Hamilton Co. OH Administrator's Book 1, page 395) showed $125 for a year's support was due the widow (not named), and given that Margaret Preston had married William Pogue in Greene Co. in April 1817, less than six months after Patrick Preston's death, and that no children were mentioned by name in the settlement, this document, while ambiguously worded, does not of itself prove or disprove that the Margaret Preston in Greene Co. was Patrick's widow. The actual estate packet in Hamilton Co., which might provide more information, has not been found, and in fact may no longer exist.

It is probable that the Patrick Preston who died in Nov 1816 in Cincinnati was the same as the Patrick Preston "of the Army of the United States" who apprenticed his son, George, in 1802 to [General] Zebulon M. Pike to learn farming (Hamilton Co. Deed Book D-1, page 22). The deed stated George would reach age 21 on 19 Apr 1819, thus indicating he was born about 1798, and signifying a prior marriage of Patrick. As Gen. Pike died in 1813, this apprenticeship probably was not completed and nothing further is known of George Preston. A Patrick Preston is listed as a private, along with a Joseph and a William Preston, in Ferguson's Co., 1st US Regt (Lt Col Harmar) 1785-90 (page 545, "Index to Volunteer Soldiers 1784-1811" by Virgil D. White, 1987).

An article published about 1895 in the "Bellbrook Moon" (Scrapbook, Vol 3, page 21, Public Library, Xenia, OH) about James W. Pogue stated that his mother was a Miss Hand, that his father was James [sic] Pogue, and that he had a brother Preston Pogue, and a half-brother William, and two half-sisters Elizabeth and Isabella, the latter who married Alexander Sackett. Preston is known to be the surname of these three half-siblings, thus the Margaret Preston who married William Pogue in 1817 in Greene Co. (not James, as his wife almost certainly was Sarah Henry). is indicated as the mother of these five children. This article is the only written evidence found so far that Margaret's maiden name might have been Hand. However, Stephanie West Allen, a Preston descendent, in Jan 2000 provided information which indicates her family had knowledge, undocumented but apparently independent of the above-mentioned article, that Hand was Margaret's maiden name, thus further substantiating the belief. Margaret's parents possibly were not William and Phebe Hand, as she was not named in William's will, but that omission does not of itself necessarily disprove the relationship, as she could have been an older daughter amply provided for at an earlier time, and so omitted from the will. No other connection to a Hand family has been discovered as yet. In the 1880 census Preston Pogue reported his mother as born in New Jersey, and the Hands in Greene Co. did come from Essex Co., NJ; however, William Preston reported in the 1880 census that both his parents were born in Ireland, and this discrepancy has not yet been resolved. The date of Margaret's birth is estimated. It is not known when or where she died, but she probably was deceased before 1840, perhaps before her son William left for Illinois, and certainly before 1850.

CHILD 1 Elizabeth PRESTON

NOTES:

Her existence is known from an article dated about Feb 1893 in "Scrapbook of the Bellbrook Moon", Vol 3, page 21 (Public Library, Xenia, OH), which stated James W. Pogue had a brother Preston [Pogue], and two half-sisters Elizabeth and Isabella [Preston] and a half-brother William [Preston]. That Elizabeth was the first born is conjecture, based on the known birthdates of her siblings, and the probable date of death of her father. She possibly died before 1830, and nothing further is known of her.

CHILD 2 Isabella PRESTON

NOTES:

The given name of her father is not proven; the maiden name of her mother also has not been proved as yet. The exact county of her birth is uncertain, but probably Greene Co. or Hamilton Co., Ohio. Birth and death dates are from her gravestone.

HUSBAND PRESTON

NOTES:

The name of the first husband of Margaret Preston has not been proven. It has been speculated he might have been Patrick Preston who died in Cincinnati in Nov 1816, based on the facts that a James Hand was named the administrator of his estate, that an article in the "Bellbrook Moon" said the mother of James W. Pogue (who was known to be a son of Margaret Preston Pogue) was a Miss Hand, and that her first son with William Pogue was named Preston Patrick Pogue. However, an accounting in Jul 1818 of Patrick Preston's estate (Hamilton Co. OH Administrator's Book 1, page 395) showed $125 for a year's support was due the widow (not named), and given that Margaret Preston had married William Pogue in Greene Co. in April 1817, less than six months after Patrick Preston's death, and that no children were mentioned by name in the settlement, this document, while ambiguously worded, does not of itself prove or disprove that the Margaret Preston in Greene Co. was Patrick's widow. The actual estate packet in Hamilton Co., which might provide more information, has not been found, and in fact may no longer exist.

It is probable that the Patrick Preston who died in Nov 1816 in Cincinnati was the same as the Patrick Preston "of the Army of the United States" who apprenticed his son, George, in 1802 to [General] Zebulon M. Pike to learn farming (Hamilton Co. Deed Book D-1, page 22). The deed stated George would reach age 21 on 19 Apr 1819, thus indicating he was born about 1798, and signifying a prior marriage of Patrick. As Gen. Pike died in 1813, this apprenticeship probably was not completed and nothing further is known of George Preston. A Patrick Preston is listed as a private, along with a Joseph and a William Preston, in Ferguson's Co., 1st US Regt (Lt Col Harmar) 1785-90 (page 545, "Index to Volunteer Soldiers 1784-1811" by Virgil D. White, 1987).

The family story goes this Sir William Whicker (08-27-1760 - 11-02-1851) comes from England to fight against the colonists. He sees that he no longer wishes to support England and fights WITH the colonists. He remains in America and gets land in Poughkipsie. He marries has a family. The children having grown, he remarries to a Mary Polly Hand VanDolah (@1785 - 12-1835). They have two children: William Whicker Jr. (02-14-1819 - 11-24-1906) and Stephen. I recently learned that Mary and William part ways because of spousel abuse. I need to know if anyone knows this William from england! Thank you for your time!

I found Stephen's Will in the Allen Co. IN library but it was very difficult to read. It went to probate 4/9/1890 so he died prior to that date. Would appreciate any data you could provide on this family, does it connect to yours?

FROM

FROM THE "BELLBROOK MOON' of Bellbrook, Ohio. Collection of 1893.

And short biographical sketches of the people who have lived here, beginning in the year 1820. The name of every family throughout this part of the country who have ever lived around here will be brought into connection with this history. To be continued during the year 1893.

A short sketch of Joseph Vandolah and how he got his wife about 80 years ago. Mr. Hand owned the farm where Newton Berryhill and John Underwood now live. He lived in a double log cabin that stood opposite the brick house where Matthew Berryhill now lives. Mr. Hand had a daughter called Polly for short, who was a young woman. One evening a young man by the name of Joseph Vandolah called at Mr. Hand's and asked if he could get to stay overnight. Mr. Hand with pioneer hospitality told him he could. The young gentlemen was dressed in a buck-skin hunting shirt, homespun pantaloons, coonskin cap and barefooted. He carried in his hand a stocking leg in which were 200 silver dollars. He was on his way to the land office situated at Cincinnati to enter the quarter section of land opposite where Msr. Hand lived and now owned by Matthew Berryhill. It is not known to this day which Miss Polly fancied most, Joseph's garb which covered true manly principles, his person, or the stocking leg. Probably a combination of the whole. It soon became evident that she fancied the combination. It so happened, as such things do sometimes, that Joseph became enamored of Polly, which might be called a case of love at first sight, for before they slept that night, they had enchanged vows of love and fidelity, and before separating they fixed the date when Joseph was to return and seal their vows for life. When the time came for Joseph to return and claim his fiancee, he thought, as it was to be the second most eventful day of a man's life, he must fix himself up in a more respectable garb, so he put on his Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes and punctually appeared at the house of Polly. His clothes changed his appearance so that Polly did not know him, but Joseph introduced himself as the man who carried the stocking leg, and they were married all the same. Joseph took his honemoon at home erecting his log cabin in the woods upon the land which the two hundred dollars bought. They seemed to be well mated and lived a _____ peaceable life. He was not _____ bred but was sober and had _____ principles. He was a great bee hunter and would dig ginseng in the summer and dry it and carry it to Lebanon on his back and sell it and walk home, a distance of 28 miles the round trip. One prolific year he dug more than he thought he could carry. He went to his neighbor John Hawkins and asked him to lend him a horse. It was in November and quite cool weather. Mr. Hawkins granted his request and told him he must wear a pair of his shoes. To accommodate Mr. Hawkins, he put the shoes on and wore them. When he came home, he took the horse and shoes home and thanked Mr. Hawkins for the use of the horse, and said to him, "You will not fool me again by getting me to wear them shoes." He said it rained on him and the water ran down his legs into his shoes and kept his feet cold all day, when, he said, if he had been barefooted, his feet would have dried off and kept warm. They had five children, James, Joseph, William, Sarah, and Benjamin. William died when he was about 12 years old. Mr. Vandolah was soon called to his final reward. James learned the millwright trade, which he followed through his life. He and Samuel Lam built and owned the Washington Mills that burned down a few years ago. He built the Evans Mill below Spring Valley and owned it in partnership with Mr. Evans. John Duck of this place learned the millwright trade under him. He married Rebecca Tucker, who was the daughter of Reason Tucker. They were married at the bride's home at Washington Mills, Squire John James officiating, which event occurred in about the year 1832. The widow Vandolah, after living some time, came to the conclusion that it might be better to have a man to help manage her affairs, so she married William Whicker and bore him two children, William and Stephen. Finally she concluded that a man was not always what they were cracked up to be. They differed and separated and in due time, were divorced, which occurred about the year 1835. The Vandolah heirs sold their farm to Matthew Berryhill and moved to Clifton and lived a year or two, where Sarah was married and James and his father-in-law built a mill, after which they all moved to Indiana beyond Fort Wayne where James and Mr. Tucker built a mill _____. At last account both James and Joseph were dead.

Some additional information on the "HAND" side of the family: William Erickson Hand's father, George W. Hand, was born in Greene County, Ohio, September 26, 1819. His wife, Rebecca Elizabeth Cain, was born in Greene Co., Ohio, June 24, 1824. They were married February 3, 1842. Their children were:

Josephus Hand, born Feb. 3, 1843 - lived only 7 days
Lucetta Hand, born March 24, 1844 - died in 1909
William Erickson Hand, bornDec. 28,1845 - died Feb. 22, 1915
Sarah Elizabeth Hand, born May 6, 1848 - died Oct. 4, 1849
(Lived only 1 year, 4 months and 29 days.)
Mary Jane Hand -born July 27, 1850 - died in 1928

Lucetta maried Robert Dolin. They had 4 daughters:
Florence, Eva, Gertrude and Emma.
Mr. Dolin died about 1878. Lucette later married Henry Golden. They had 1 daughter Edith. Mr. Golden died in 1896 and Lucetta died in 1908 in Eel River Township, Allen County, Ind.

Mary Jane married Jefferson Sickler about 1870. Their children were:
Cora, George and Sarah. They lived in the house later occupied by the Perry family, located west of the Anderson school on what was later known as the "Carroll" Road in Eel River Twp. In 1883 Aunt Jane and Uncle Jeff took up government land in South Dakota near Wessington Springs. Uncle Jeff was successful there, then retired and moved to Santa Cruz, on the California coast south of San Francisco, owning a home on Branciforte Ave. Uncle Jeff died in 1917. Later Aunt Jane sent money to Zelpha Hand, asking her niece to come visit her. Zelpha did and stayed in California 4 years, part of which time she spent working in the Southern Pacific R.R. office in San Francisco. Zelpha then returned to Ind.

As mentioned previously, William Erickson Hand and Arminda Mae Essex were married February 14, 1882 and had 8 children. More detailed bibliographies of these 8 follow.

George Washington Hand was born December 11, 1882. After graduating from Fort Wayne High School he attended Purdue Univ. in West Lafayette, Ind., studying Civil Engineering. Next he went to work for the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Co. engineering department in Chicago. While there he met and married Ella Tessen whose father also worked for the C&NW. They lived in Chicago for a time, later moving to suburbs Edison Park and finally to Park Ridge.

George became Chief Valuation Engineer, head of a department that railroads established to prepare detailed evaluations of all their properties in order to comply with a federal law passed in 1913 setting freight rates at a fixed percentage of the property value. The government established bureau to conduct their own evaluations in order to be able to challenge the railroads' figures. George spent so much time in Washington D.C. attending discussions between railroad and government people, mostly lawyers, that he decided to study law in night school, graduating from the John Marshall Law School in Chicago. In the meantime he was promoted to Assistant-to-the-President of the C&NW railroad. Incidentally the railroads challenged the constitutionality of the 1913 law and made a test case of a small belt-line railroad around St. Louis, Mo., the St. Louis & O'Fallon RR. Result: law was declared unconstitutional by U.S. Supreme Court in 1930 or 1931 and 16 or 17 years' work went out the window!

George and Ella had 5 children:

|---|---|
| Marjorie | George, Jr. |
| Luella | James |
| Robert | |

(George, Sr. died in 1964)

Luella Mae Hand was born May 11, 1884. After high school in Ft. Wayne, she attended Valparaiso Univ., Valparaiso, Ind., to obtain a teacher's license, then taught for several years in Allen County, Ind. Then she married Walter Hursh, also a teacher. In later years Walter became a rural mail carrier out of the Huntertown, Ind. post office. They had 4 children:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| *George | Frank | *George lived only a few months |
| Charles | Marie | |

When Walter Hursh retired he and Luella went to Florida for the winter months. They maintained a mobile home at Palmetto, Fla. the year around but drove back to Ind. for the summers. They started wintering in Florida in the early 1950's. After returning to their home near Huntertown in 1963, Walter became ill. He died in the Parkview Hospital, Ft. Wayne, Ind. in August, 1963. Luella did not return to Florida after that. In 1970 she went to live with her sisters Zelpha and Gladys Hand at their home on South Harrison St., Ft. Wayne, Ind. which their mother had bought and occupied in April, 1920. (Luella's doctor did not want her to live alone after cataract surgery.) She lived with Zelpha and Gladys until taken to a nursing home on recommendation by her doctor following illness. Within a few days Luella died, in Oct., 1978. She was 94 years old.

Thorpe, Whicker, Fought families Butler and Auburn areas

Posted by: Barb C. (ID 9677) Date: August 04, 2003 at 13:26:53

I am researching the families of Dudley Thorpe, Clarissa Thorpe Whicker and Mary "Polly" (Hand Vandolah Whicker) Fought {she was married three times}.

Dudley Thorpe (@1800) was married to Angelina Eggelson/Eggleson sp? and they had a few children, one for certain was Clarissa (1827 - 1899). Clarissa's mother, Angelina, passed away in Ohio, we believe, and Dudley moved himself and chidlren to Dekalb County, either Butler or Auburn, Indiana. He appears in the 1840 census as Dudley Sharp.

In the same census the Thorpe family live down the way from Mary Wicher, also spelled wrong, her name is Whicker. Her two sons are with her, William Jr, and Stephen. Her children from her first marriage also live down the way in this very same census, Vandolah. Clarissa Thorpe and Mary's son, William Whicker Jr., marry in the mid 1840's. Mary also marrys to Samuel Fought in 1841.

Dudley Thorpe, Mary and Samuel Fought drop of the face of the earth from here. I can not find anything more about them. I would love help on that.

Mary's second husband, William Whicker Senior, also disappears. I don't know if they were married when they came to Indiana, although William Jr.'s obituary states they may have. So they divorced prior to 1840's anyway.

I do not know where Angelina Eggelson/Eggleson Thorpe died for certain, would love to know that.

Any help on this family would be greatly appreciated.

Hi.

I am searching for the Thorpe, Whicker and Vandolah families. They are all from Ohio. Whicker and Vandolah were from the Greene County, Ohio area and Thorpe, I do not know where they came from.

Dudley Thorpe lived in DeKalb before it had township names, but it was probably the Butler area. His daughter, Clarissa married William Whicker Jr. I would like to know the names of Dudley's other children that were indicated in the 1840 census. I lose Dudley after the 1840 census, which by the way, listed him as Sharp.

Mary Whicker is the mother of William Whicker Jr. She appears in the 1840 census for Dekalb as Whicher. Her sons William and Stephen are living at home with her. She married a third time to a Samuel Fought in the 1840's and they lived in Allen County, Indiana. She disappears after the 1860 census where she is listed as Mary Fought. Her son Joseph Vandolah is from her first marriage, he too appears in the 1840 census for Dekalb.

I am looking for the burial places of all of these individuals and connecting with family.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely yours, Barb

From Barb Crompton:

William H. Whicker, Jr. (2-14, 1819 to November 24, 1906 was born in Caesar's Creek, Greene Co., Ohio, to William Whicker of England and Mary "Polly" Hand Vandolah of Hunterdon, New Jersey. This mother has been verified both through the Digest of Obituaries, Columbia City, Whitley Co., IN, 1856-1810 by Raber and by Rootsweb World Connect Project. The death records of Allen County, Fort Wayne, IN, mentions an unknown mother of the USA.

By 1860 they had 480 acres in Fort Wayne, Indiana (???? Perry Twp. is not Fort Wayne! though it may have had a Fort Wayne post office address.) according to the Digest of Obituaries in Columbia City. All the land was sold and they went to Missouri driving cattle and 18 horses overland. During the three years of his stay in Missouri, he lost nearly all the family possessions. They returned to Allen County, Ft. Wayne, IN. Then they moved to Whitley County, Coesse, Indiana 1882-1907 reports that Clarissa was 73 years old when she died and that she was interred according to Coesse Cemetery records at the Coesse Lutheran Cemetery in Whitley County, Coesse, Indiana (along with her husband, William H. Whicker and the above mentioned George.)

He apparently went to live with his son, Charles E. Whicker, at his house for four and a half years and then he moved to the city of Fort Wayne to be taken care of by his daughter and son-in-law, Sarah Ann and Charles Damon, 8 months before his death. The Fort Wayne Journal Gazette 14.3 (???) reported William's death with an obituary and a write-up. He was 86 years, 9 months and 20 days old when he died at the home of his son-in-law F. Fisheron 1336 Buchanan in Fort Wayne, IN. Barb does not know who this Fisher is. The closest Fisher she found was a Frederick Fisher in the 1870 census for Whitley Co., IN, sheet 21, page 35A at the Kneller site. His parents were Augustus and Charlotte. Needs more work her to make a match.

William died of old age. He lived in Whitley County as a young man and moved to Fort Wayne only due to old age. The Peltier Mortuary records of Fort Wayne, Indiana, January 1874-August 1938 verify his death facts. The city record states Pneumonia as a cause of death and that he was the city's 707th death recorded that year. His remains were sent to his son Charles in Coesse, Indiana, where there was a service in a Methodist Church. He was buried at the Coessee Lutheran Cemetery next to Clarissa and their son ?? George, section A, lot #719. All their children resided in Fort Wayne, Indiana, at least until 1918 according to the 1918 census of German families living in Fort Wayne.

Clarissa was the daughter of Dudley and Angeline (Eggleson) Thorpe both born about 1800) who according to the 1900 census were both from Ohio, but it has been mentioned that maybe the parents were from New York (Indiana Death Records of 1900-1920 and the 1850 census). Needs to be verified. It has been said that Clarissa had 2 siblings, Edward and Angelina Thorpe, which also has not been verified.

1913 photo of the Vandolah Mill and the bridge that goes across Cedar Creek. This is a wooden bridge at this point and do not see any sides or metal top on it.

The description of where James Vandolah built his mill was that the creek ran south across his property and he built his mill close to the creek on the west side and south of what became the Old Auburn Road.

If that description (written by Forest McComb) was taken from folks who were living at the time the mill was still there, and is correct, then in this photo we are standing north of the bridge along the creek. He has a picture of the mill in his article, but this is a different one. That one was apparently taken at a distance standing quite a way south of the bridge. Though the building and the bridge are both in that picture, it is hard to tell which side of the road the building was on. But Forest's description says "south of what was later to be the Old Auburn Road" and on the west side of the creek. That puts it in the southwest corner of the land there divided by the creek and Old Auburn Road.

Difficult in the photo above to see the buildings through the trees and brush. It appears there might have been several buildings in the complex. Forest also says that James built his own house up on the rim of the "canyon" so doubt if it could be showing in this picture. As far as we know, the bridge is where it has always been and Auburn Road comes down over the hill and turns quickly to go over the bridge.

New timber bridge spans creek and time

By PAT MURPHY
Of The News-Sentinel

Allen County's newest bridge does more than span Cedar Creek.

It's a timber bridge which blends progress with rustic beauty, says Susan L. Till, president of the Fort Wayne Chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America Inc.

The bridge spans Cedar Creek at Auburn Road in one of the more pristine sections of northern Allen County.

It is scheduled to be dedicated at 10:30 a.m. Friday by county and state officials who in the late 1970s — at the insistence of the league — scrapped plans to build a concrete bridge at that location.

"We felt the creek deserved something better," said Till, who was on the league's bridge committee at the time. "It was one of the most rustic and scenic in Allen County. So we wanted something better than a concrete structure."

It is the first timber bridge built in Allen County within the last 100 years, said Edward L. Heidenreich, county highway department bridge engineer.

"And it's a beauty," he said. "It's not the bridge for all settings, but it fits perfectly at this location."

The two-lane, 200-foot bridge is probably the biggest timber bridge in Indiana, said William J. Solomon, president of American Timber Bridge and Culvert Inc., which supplied the material.

"To my knowledge, the second-longest timber bridge is 162 feet, over the Yellow River in Starke County," Solomon said.

The new timber bridge replaces a single-lane steel bridge built in 1884 near the site of an old grist mill, Till said. "The whole area is just delightful, and the bridge fits right in."

Cedar Creek starts in DeKalb County and wanders across Perry and Cedar townships to Cedarville, where it joins the St. Joseph River.

The 13.7-mile segment is designated as scenic under Indiana's Natural, Scenic and Recreational River Systems Act of 1973.

The bridge cost $470,000. County officials are reluctant to speculate about cost comparisons between the timber bridge at 1983 prices and a concrete bridge at 1979 prices.

"It probably cost more," said County Commissioner Richard M. Ellenwood, R-1st District. "But that's probably because timber bridges are something new, and most construction companies don't have that much experience with them yet.

"But a lot of folks will insist the extra expense is more than justified because of its asthetic value."

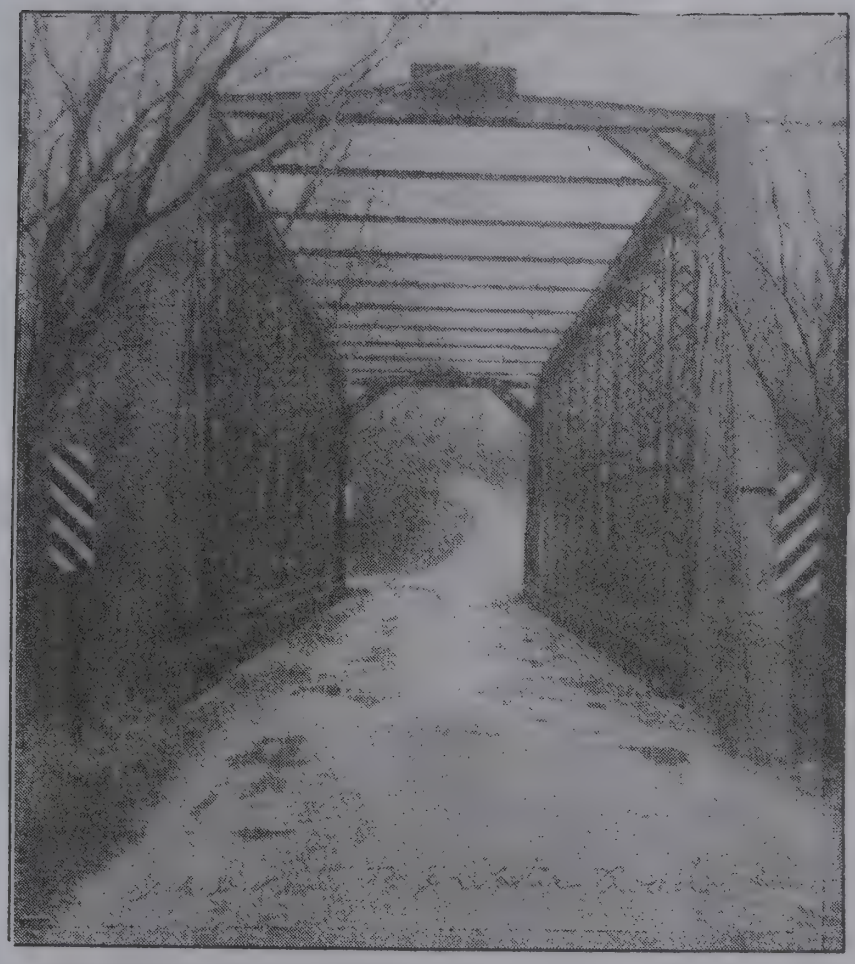

The lifespan of a timber bridge is expected to be about 50 years, roughly the same as a steel or concrete structure. Proponents say the pretreated wood does not crack, crumble or rot and cannot be damaged by temperature changes.

Will new bridge ruin Devil's Hollow legend?

Dark, winding roads, a house on hill, an eerie moonglow above a flowing creek and lots of old, gnarled trees: this is the stuff of which good scary stories are made.

It's the stuff that helped make Devil's Hollow, an area just south of the DeKalb County Line on Old Auburn Road, an age-old legend to many DeKalb County residents.

Tales of murder, suicide and secret messages have flowed from this place for generations. It has been home to a 100-year-old, rustic bridge that crosses Cedar Creek.

But there is something different at Devil's Hollow these days.

On July 20, Allen County officials dedicated a replacement for the old steel bridge — a focal point of the hollow and its legend — with a new, $460,000 structure, a beautiful, streamlined bridge made of heavy timber and concrete piers.

Allen County Commissioner Richard M. Regedanz commented favorably on how the bridge blends in with the neighboring Izaak Walton League nature preserve.

In changing the appearance of the old bridge, though, some may wonder if part of the Devil's Hollow legend also has been altered.

Teenagers and adults alike have, for years, traversed the span of the old steel bridge — mostly at night, reports say. Local historians and even officials from Indiana University have studied the mysterious tales that surround the area.

Once such investigator is John A. Gutowski, a professor at I.U. in Fort Wayne. In 1970, he and his American folklore class conducted a brief study on Devil's Hollow.

Gutowski and his class collected testimony from almost a dozen local historians and nearby residents. The investigators discovered both similarities and discrepancies in the story of Devil's Hollow. Among the common findings:

- The focal character in the legend is an old man (insane, Nazi or a man with a hook in hand) who lived in a hilltop house;
- The man murdered his wife (and child) or engaged in sabotage;
- Because of guilt, grief (or for no reason) the man committed suicide by hanging himself from the bridge (tree);
- Prior to his suicide, he left a light burning in his house, then built the strange fence with a design that contains his suicide explanation, or reason for murdering his wife or a clue to a hiding place of money.
- Since then, the light in the house continues to burn, the man's glowing hook can be seen, or his groaning can be heard on the bridge.

Interviews conducted with local residents produced simple explanations for several parts of the legend.

The mysterious fence that contains the secret message, one informant said, was built in that fashion only because the builder liked the design. Another said it was the cheapest way of constructing the fence.

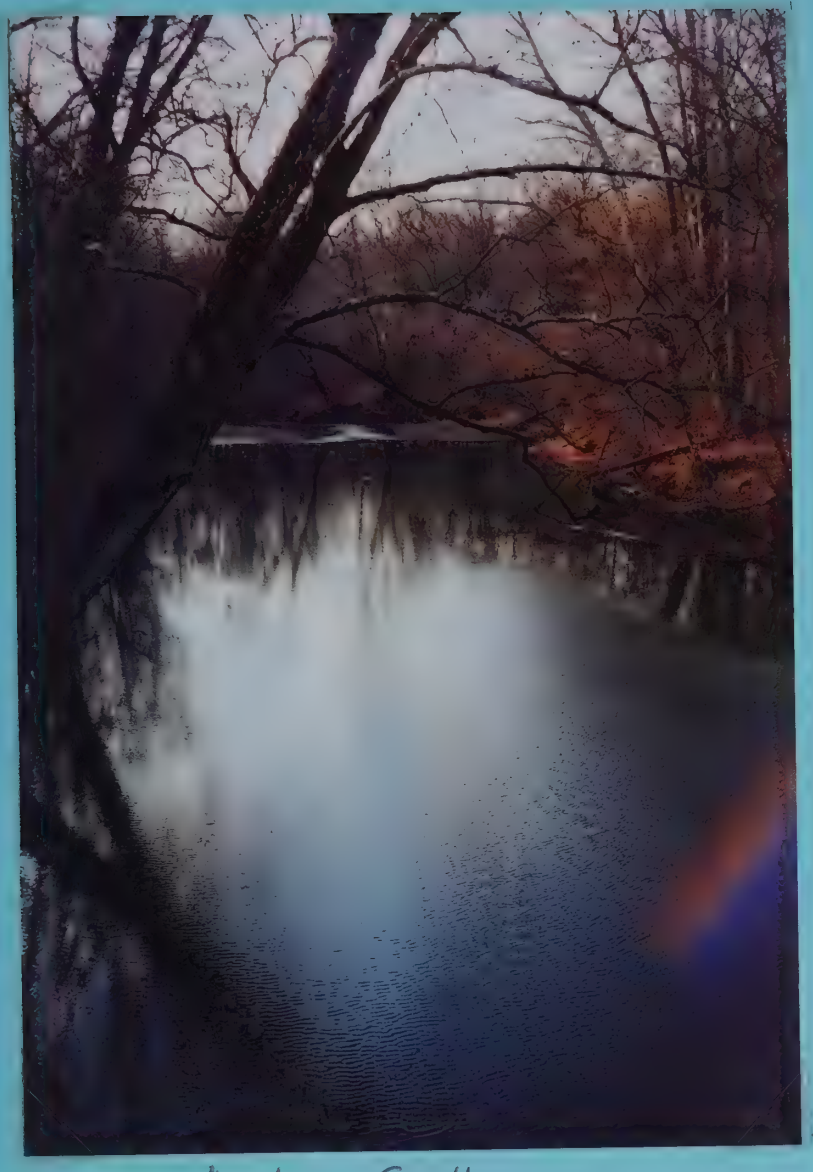

The eternal light that shines from the house is to keep vandals or mischievous youths at-bay, another informant explained.

Whatever the explanation, people continue to visit Devil's Hollow year after year. They visit, many times, just to be scared.

One popular stunt used to be driving a car onto the old bridge and then coming to an abrupt stop, which triggered moans and groans from the bridge itself.

While the bridge may have a different look these days, the hollow will still hold memories of days gone by. And it may, for some, still hold those supernatural qualities that make it a local legend.

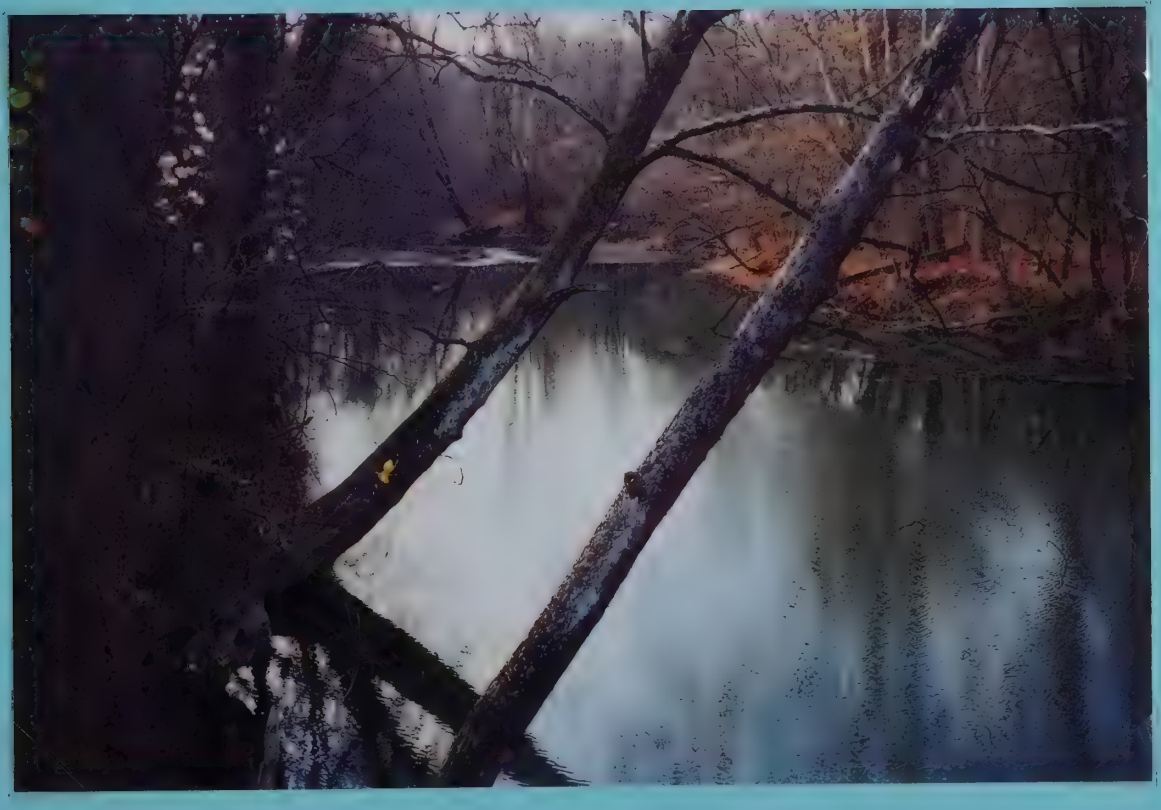

After all, scary stories are made of the stuff that is found at Devil's Hollow.

Family Settled Around A Busy Mill And Stayed

By FOREST J. M'COMB

When Allen County was opened up for settlement, James Vandolah came from Green County, Ohio. The year was 1832. He found what he wanted in northeast Perry Township and purchased 520 acres direct from the government. The land lay on both sides of Cedar Creek, and 100 acres of it straddled the creek bottom, connecting the high land on both sides. The price was $1.25 per acre.

The officials with whom James dealt were amazed. "Why — Mr. Vandolah, with such a good choice of available land do you take so much wild creek bottom?"

"I'm a millwright," he answered, "and I want the water rights!"

James Vandolah went back to Green County. Three years later he returned and dug the mill race. The following year, 1836, he brought his family to stay.

Cedar Creek comes down through Auburn, picking up tributaries and increasing in size on its southerly course. Soon after entering Allen County it is joined by Willow Creek, and turns on a southeastern course through Perry and Cedar Creek Townships to empty into the St. Joseph River near Cedarville.

The land in northeast Perry Township is the highest elevation in Allen County — it being 923 feet above sea level at one point, making it 160 feet higher than at Fort Wayne. The stream of Cedar Creek goes out of its banks during flood time, spreading water over the entire creek bottom, and undoubtedly, has cut the deep canyon that varies in width from a quarter to one half mile from rim to rim. The wild creek bottom is filled with trees and brush and is beautiful and picturesque.

Sites Well Chosen For Mill, House

James chose well, building a house for the family on the south rim, and the mill down close to the creek. The creek curved south on his land and he had cut the mill race across the inside of the curve, and located the mill against the bluff of hill on the west side of the creek and south of what later became the Auburn Road.

James Vandolah was a genius at his trade and the mill was expertly engineered. The mill burr, made from French stone, was adjustable for fine and coarse grinding, and everything in the mill worked beautifully.

The importance of water power can be recognized when it is remembered that the only other power available to a pioneer was horses, oxen, and his own strong back. The power of water is clearly demonstrated, because many years later, a 10 horse-power steam engine was tried on the mill and could barely pull it.

So pioneers took advantage of water whenever possible, and while the mill James owned became popular and one of the better known, it was just one of the 35 mills that finally operated in Allen County. Besides the grist mill, a saw mill was installed that used a drag saw to rip the logs. I heard of a white-oak log that was brought to the mill. It was so large in circumference the mill couldn't handle it, and it was dragged to one side where it rotted down.

Mill Was Social Center

Shortly after the Vandolah family settled on Cedar Creek, the Smith, Warner, and Myers families came from Pennsylvania. They took up rugged land north of the creek and this became known as the Dutch Ridge country, and still is.

James Vandolah must have employed a miller to operate the mill, for he continued to work at his trade. He built the Skyrock Mill at Leo, The Dawson Mill at Spencerville, a mill near Clarksville, and a number of others. But he became sick and died at the comparatively early age of 44.

With the settling of James' estate, the mill became the property of the Gloyd family. Jerome Gloyd lived for a time in the Vandolah house that still stands on the south rim of the canyon, and where the Auburn Road starts to wind down into the creek valley past the old mill site. The mill was in the Gloyd family for about 44 years, and became known as "Gloyd's Mill."

Gloyd Family Took Over Mill Property

Ed Gloyd a brother of Jerome, became the miller and under his reign many things happened. A daughter, Mrs. Tracey McMarrall of Kendallville, was born at the mill residence in 1889, and she remembers the family attending Sunday services at the Dutch Ridge Salem Reformed Church. In the summer, on arriving home, the family would choose a spot down at the creek and have a picnic dinner for themselves and any guests present.

An improvement in "getting the mail" was made when a corner of the mill was partitioned off and it became a U.S. post office. It was served by a Star Route from Auburn Junction. The carrier made the round trip six days a week with horses, and dropped the mail off at designated points. It was then up to local people to "come and get it." Thus the mill became a social center, as the county had built a steel bridge across the creek making it easily accessible.

It became the habit for neighborhood men to gather evenings at the mill. They'd get the mail, the news, and the gossip, exchange opinions — and play checkers! Some one marked off a board, and the games were hot and furious, and one opponent used white grains of corn and the other red. The champion didn't play all the time but was usually on hand to take on anyone who thought he'd become pretty good!

In these social gatherings, there was a chap, who must remain anonymous, but he loved to stretch the truth for the entertainment of his fellowmen. When he stepped into the mill one dark night one of the loafers called to him, "Hey — tell us a lie, real quick!"

"I can't do it, boys," he said, "I've no time for foolishness. I just got word that so-and-so up on the hill has died! The family sent for me, and that's where I'm agoin'!" He backed out, and shut the mill door.

The "news" was like a bomb to the listeners and it took awhile to digest it. Many of them had seen the man that day, in fact, he'd had a grist to the mill. A death in those days must be handled right at home by surviving members of the family, and the help of friends was greatly appreciated. When the shocked group had time to think it over, one of them said, "Boys — some of us better get up there!"

About a half dozen men walked across the bridge and up to the house. There was a lantern at the woodpile and someone was chopping. It proved to be the dead man!

"—We—we heard you was dead!" one of the astounded men said.

"Who said so?"

"So-and-so came in the mill. We asked him to tell us a lie real quick, and he said, '—That you were dead, and he couldn't.' "

"I'll assure you boys, I'm very much alive," the corpse said, leaning on his axe, "but he did tell you a lie real quick; didn't he!"

The mill drew customers from quite a distance. The Vandolahs being related to the Tucker family in Eel River Township, and twice a year the Tucker, Hand, and Anderson families loaded a wagon with grain, men, women, and children and drove the ten miles to the mill. While the grist was being ground, they'd stable and feed the horses in Vandolah's barn, then stay for dniner and a visit. When back home, the flour stored carefully, would make their supply of bread for the next six months.

Money was scarce and hard to come by in those days. The way the mill operated, if folks didn't have cash to pay for the grinding the miller took one eighth of the grain. It was called "paying toll."

A character, who wished to equal the champion liar, started a rumor that the miller had raised the toll out of all proportion. "I took a grist to the mill," he said, "and the miller not only took all the grain for the grinding but then chased me clear across the bridge trying to get my sacks!"

But knowing Ed Gloyd, no one believed this story.

After operating the mill many years, Ed Gloyd in 1896, traded the 100-acre property to Jerome Bleekman for land in Ohio. Jerome's grandson, Arthur Bleekman was nine years old and moved with his grandfather to the residence. He later acquired the property, and has lived there 73 years.

"Art" says the mill was getting old and worn, especially the dam across the creek. James Vandolah had the entire operation well planned. The rise and fall of water had to be considered and James' engineering took this into account, and he maintained a good head of water on the wheel, even during a drouth.

Jerome Bleekman tried to repair the dam and dug the race longer, but not possessing the engineering skill of James he got into trouble. High water washed around the dam, lowering the supply of water. The headgate controlling the water to the wheel was on the north side of the road, and a flume carried it under the road and into the mill. The mill had to be shut down at intervals to wait for the water to build up, and in four years Jerome closed the mill.

It proved to be a wise decision, for steam and gasoline power were soon to supercede water power throughout the country. The mill had operated for about 60 years and served its purpose.

What of the Vandolah family? Some of James' descendants are still on land he took up from the government — to the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth generation. This is a rarity, for few descendants are still on land their forefathers pioneered. They have taken up another occupation and moved elsewhere, or perhaps moved to different land, and in many cases The Grim Reaper has taken a toll!

James Vandolah had three sons and four daughters. The daughters married and moved away, but the sons stayed. There were 420 acres left after the 100 acres of mill property were deducted, and the three sons became prominent and well-to-do farmers.

James the youngest, never married. Thomas, married but had no children. Benjamin, the eldest, married and raised two daughters. Elizabeth was born in 1889, and Frances a year later. They've lived their entire life on Vandolah land. "Lizzie" (Mrs. Charles Stellhorn) is a widow and has a son, Byron, with her. They live on the northeast side of Cedar Creek and represent one branch of the third and fourth generation of James Vandolah.

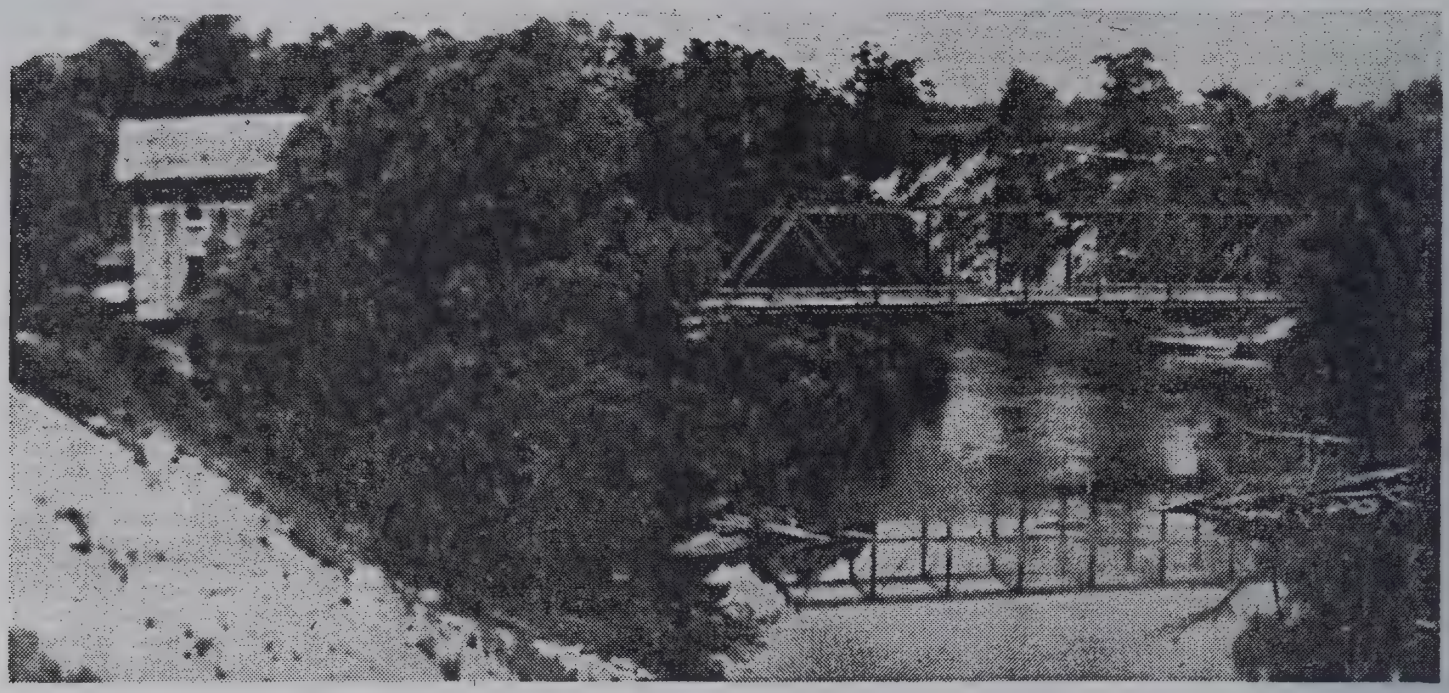

Frances (Fannie) and husband, Harrison Bailey, live south of Cedar Creek across from the old homestead of her father, Ben, which is just a good stone's throw from the mill residence. Her daughter, Doris (4th generation) and husband, Joe Schlatter, live north of Cedar Creek on the Auburn Road and have four sons. One of the sons, Ronald (5th generation) is married and has a house on the property, and at this writing, he has an infant son, Bryan, representing the sixth generation on the land. The pioneer movements of James Vandolah in 1832 have been far reaching, indeed!

Arthur Bleekman and the Vandolahs, later the Baileys and Stellhorns, have been neighbors 73 years. Art was a much younger man than Ben Vandolah, when Ben was living, but they had a thing in common — they both loved hunting. Ben, usually a man of few words, would loosen up and talk hunting. He once told about wounding a deer on his farm and how he followed the animal five miles, almost to Leo, before it weakened enough for him to catch up and get it.

He and Art were in the woods, one day, back of Ben's house and Ben stopped. Another story was coming.

"I want to tell you, Art, of an experience I had. I shot a buck deer right about here, and he dropped. Thinking I had 'im, I carelessly leaned my gun against a tree and went up to bleed 'im. I was within a few feet of the deer and he jumped to his feet. When a deer gets mad his hair bristles and turns forward. Every hair on this deer was pointed toward me and his eyes had turned green.

"I was in a bad position with my gun over against the tree, for I knew he'd attack me. We looked at each other a few seconds, and I was wondering how to keep from being cut to pieces by his hooves, when another shot rang out and the deer dropped a second time. I looked around, and my brother, Tom, had come up and saw my predicament"; a confirmed tobacco chewer, Ben spat toward a tree, " 'Twas the best darned shot Tom ever made!"

A descendant of Perry Township pioneers, Liz Vandolah Stellhorn finds satisfaction in visits from her young relatives, including great-grandniece Renee Schlatter, 3, who attended her 100th birthday celebration July 1.

She still has that pioneer adaptability

By MARYHELEN SCHNETKER

Living to the ripe age of 100 is always an accomplishment, and even more so when the honoree is the scion of pioneer stock.

Liz Vandolah Stellhorn was feted on her 100th birthday July 1 at Byron Health Center, where she's been a resident for more than a decade.

"Everybody said she would die once they took her away from the farm," Stellhorn's niece Doris Schlatter recalled.

But Stellhorn, who had lived on the Vandolah family farm on Vandolah Road all her life, lived up to her pioneer heritage of adaptability. "They put her in a wheelchair, and she would go up and down the halls and talk to everybody," Schlatter said.

The centenarian is the granddaughter of James Vandolah, who first visited Perry Township in 1832 and bought land for a mill. He eventually acquired almost 1,000 acres in Perry and Eel River townships, and a quarter-section of land in DeKalb County.

Vandolah raised eight children. His son Benjamin remained on the homestead on Vandolah Road at Old Auburn Road, married, and raised two daughters, Liz and Fan.

"They ran around together with the Bleekman girls, Kate and Nell. They used to attend everything at Robison Park," Schlatter said.

Fan Vandolah married Harrison Bailey and raised six children, including Doris Schlatter. Liz married Charles Stellhorn, the descendant of a pioneer Maumee River landholder.

Their only son, Byron Stellhorn, said he and Schlatter still farm about 100 acres of the old Vandolah property. A neighbor, Karen Elliott, treasures the old Vandolah mill wheel.

Treasurer of the Dutch Ridge Cemetery Association, Byron Stellhorn, 75, remembers attending the one-room Dutch Ridge School, now a private home.

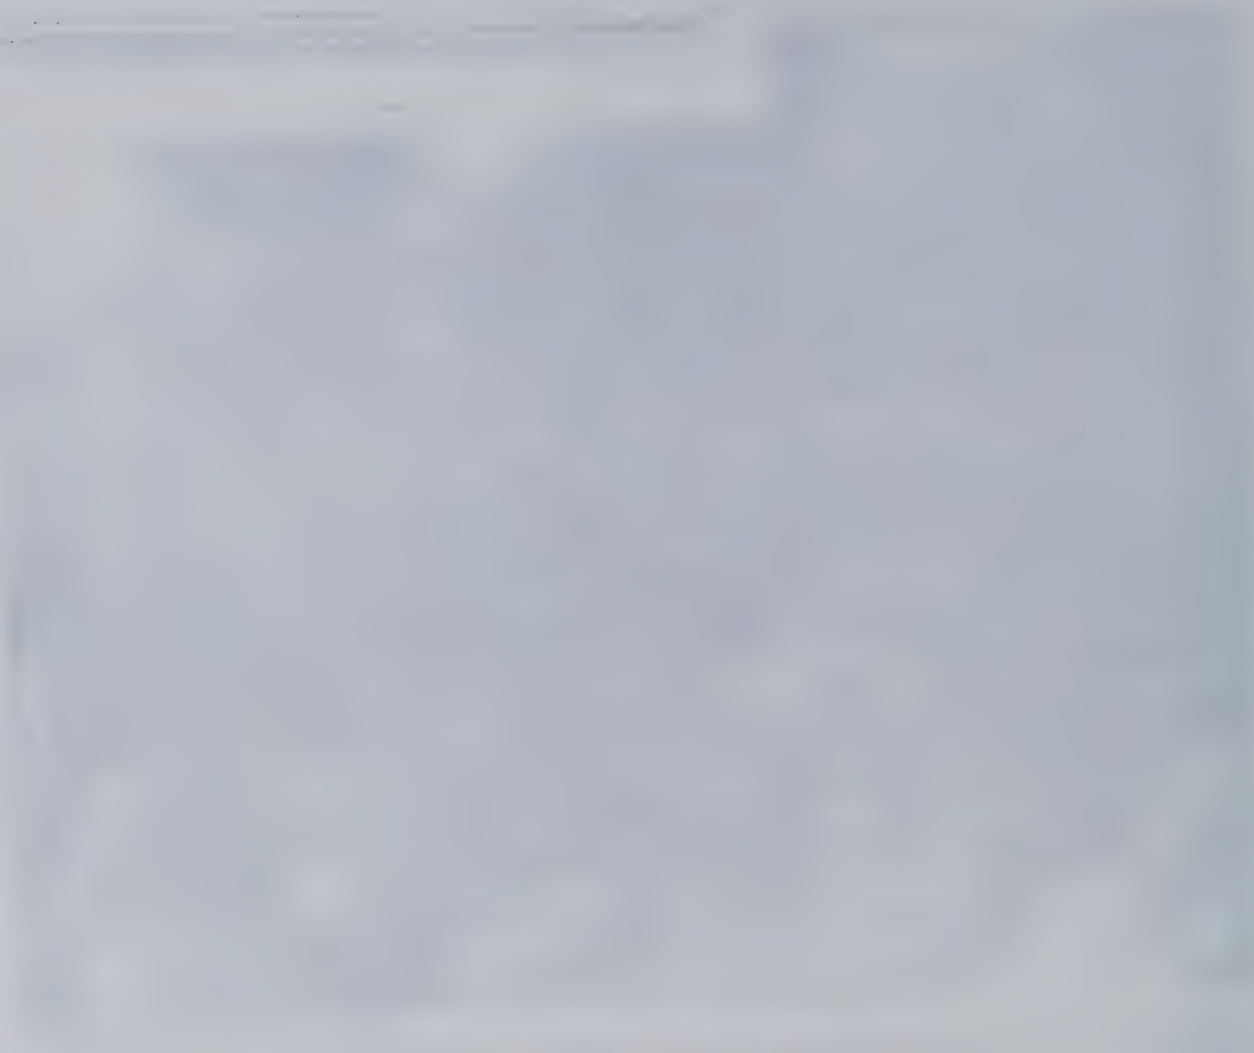

His mother was a traditional farm wife. "She always churned butter. We had dairy cattle for a while, and ended up with beef cattle," he said.

Schlatter said her aunt tended chickens until she left for the nursing home. "They never had a TV or a refrigerator. She would cook things and put them down in her basement. She was just a good Christian woman, always helping her neighbors."

Schlatter remembered her aunt sewing for the Red Cross during World War I.

Her aunt's memory hasn't been good in recent years, but life in the nursing home has some satisfactions, Schlatter said.

"She loves visits, especially from our grandchildren," Schlatter said, adding, "When she was on the farm, she never wore any jewelry, but in the nursing home, she was wearing jewelry she had won at bingo."

INTRODUCTION
prepared by Eleanor "Lynn" McCleary

Directions to the cemetery: From Highway 61 going Northeast out of Muscatine, turn right onto New Era Road.
Travel 4 miles. Just as you go around a bend, before house no. 3238, make a right, up a steep field road to the cemetery.
It is tricky to find because it does not have a sign, and when the corn is high, one cannot see the cemetery from the road

Forty years ago he went west and settled at Virginia City, accumulating large landed interests and considerable mining stock. He is survived by five brothers, three of whom reside in Nevada and two in Allen county. The latter are Isaac Tucker, of Eel River township, and E. G. Tucker, of Perry township.

Notes
George's parents were Charles Wilbur and Catherine _Waters_

Apparently George remarried after Mary Ann's death in 1880.
Sometime after 1880 to Martha Ann
Oct. 26, 1882 to Ella Richards.....in Allen County, IN.

No doubt this George is the husband of Mary Ann Vandolah. She had died earlier that year and he claims to be a widower when the census was taken. Right place, Milan Twp.

There appears to have been a daughter, Catherine listed, and she is not on this census, so wonder if she might have died before 1880 herself. Need to check the cemetery to see if she might be there with her mother. Would have been under 10 years of age.....or perhaps she might be staying with a relative.

From the "Valley of the Upper Maumee" in 1889:

George W. Willbur, a prosperous farmer of Milan township, was born in 1840 in DeKalb Co., IN, one of 6 children of Charles and Catharine Willber. Her father, a native of Vermont, born in 1792, at Windsor, when a small boy moved with his parents to New York, where he remained until he was 42 years of age, when he came to DeKalb county, where he was one of the earliest settlers. He cleared a farm and erected substantial buildings, and having passed through the hardships of pioneer life in the spring of 1851 he sold out and came to Milan township, located on the ridge road, where his son now resides, and where the father died in 1877. The mother was born in 1807 at Watertown, New York, and died at the old homestead in the fall of 1856. George W. received the rudiments of his education in the pioneer log school-house. As a farmer, he has flourished, and is now the owner of 300 acres of fertile soil in one of the finest locations in the county, upon which he has handsome buildings. March 25, 1869 he was wedded to Mary, daughter of James and Rebecca Vandolah. She was born in Perry township in 1840 and died in 1880. Her only child, Catharine, died in infancy. In 1882 he was married to Ella, daughter of Solomon and Matilda Richards by whom he had two children, Mary M. and Goldie M. both deceased. Mrs. Wilbur was born in 1852 in Wayne county, Ohio. Mr. Wilbur patriotically enlisted in Company D, 30th IN Vol Inf. for 3 years during the war, and was engaged in the following leading battles of the war: Shiloh, Stone River, Chicamauga, Murfreesboro, Kenesaw Mountain, Lovejoy, Gainesborough, among many others. He is a member of the G.A.R. and of the Masonic order. He and wife are members of the Lutheran church. He died on April 29, 1915 in Milan Twp., Allen Co., IN.

Buried in Harlan Memorial Cemetery, Springfield township, Allen Co., IN.

Notes

From the Clerk's Office of Allen County, Indiana, Marriage Record 7, page 434

Marriage License issued to G. W. Wilbur and Mary A. Vandolah, and they were joined in marriage as husband and wife on March 25, 1869.

.....

No Will or Administration upon the estate of Mary A. Wilbur, of record in the Clerk's Office of Allen County, Indiana.

In the settlement of James Vandolah, Jr's estate, in 1927, John Fitch testifies to the fact that those named in the will are all over 21 and that they are who they say they are and entitled to their part of the estate.

"Affiant (John Fitch) further says that he was well acquainted with GEORGE W. WILBUR, widower of MARY A. WILBUR, who is named as grantor in a certain deed, executed on September 4, 1880 by said GEORGE W. WILBUR to Benjamin Vandolah and others, which deed is recorded in Deed Record 81, page 201 of the Deed Records of Allen Co., Indiana, and that the said MARY A. WILBUR was this affiant's aunt and that she died intestate in said county of Allen and State of Indiana, on the 19th day of April, 1880, leaving surviving her as her sole and only heir at law, her said husband, the said GEORGE W. WILBUR; that the said MARY A. WILBUR left surviving her no father or mother and no child or children and no descendants of any child or children; that the said MARY A. WILBUR is the same person as the MARY ANN VANDOLAH, mentioned as one of the heirs of JAMES VANDOLAH in the proceedings to sell real estate as shown in Probate Final Record G., page 439 of the Court of Common Pleas of said Allen County, Indiana."

Found written on a piece of paper in Mathias's Bible the following:

Mary A. Wilbur, Town of Perry, Allen Co., State of Indiana
December 25th, 1840 Died April 19, 1880 aged 39 years, 3 months, and 24 days

Catharine R. Wilbur
Daughter of G. W. and M. A. Wilbur died October 31st, 1870 aged 1 month and 13 days

Mary Ann would have been Mathias's sister-in-law.
